

The Swedish Sports Medicine Congress

25-26 April 2019 in Gothenburg

"Welcome to the West Coast – the Frontline of Sports Medicine"

Thursday 25 April Room G3

Time
08:00	Welcome and registration
08:30	Opening ceremoni and awards
09:00	Keynote lecture
	Sports medicine past and present	Jón Karlsson
09:30	Swedish Fika
10:15	Spino-pelvic sagittal alignment in relation to pain and pathologies in the spine and hips	Chair: Adad Baranto
	Back pain and spinal pathologies in young athletes	Olof Thoreson
	Spino-pelvic sagittal alignment in relation to pain and pathologies in the spine and hips	Wisam Witwit
	Disc herniation surgery in adolescents patients	Joel Beck
	Rehabilitation of young athletes with back pain	Agneta Kjellby
11:15	Frontline of hip injuries in sports	Chair: Mattias Ahldén
	FAI in athletes: treatment, important studies and the Gothenburg perspective	Mikael Sansone
	FAI: prognostic factors, return to sport and functional testing	Anders Stålmán
11:45	Lunch
12:45	Frontline of Achilles injuries in sports	Chair: Annelie Brorsson
	Return to sports – what do we know today about RTS after an Achilles tendon rupture?	Mike Carmont
	Surgery or non-surgery – what do we recommend today?	Katarina Nilsson Helander
	The aspects of health economics	Olof Westin
	Do we really need the ankle foot orthoses? Biomechanical aspects	Åsa Fröberg
	Healing of Achilles tendon injuries. What do we know about future treatments?	Paul Ackermann
13:45	Open Paper Presentation - Trauma and Rehabilitation
15:15	Swedish Fika
15:45	Frontline of ACL injuries in sports	Chair: Kristian Samuelsson
	Trends in choice of surgical technique	Anders Stålmán
	Timing of ACL surgery, myths and facts	Mattias Ahldén
	RTS after ACL reconstruction in athletes	Alberto Grassi
	New ACL injury before, at and after return to sports following ACL reconstruction	Markus Waldén
	Rehabilitation after ACL injury and reconstruction - perspectives of Gothenburg	Eric Hamrin Senorski
17:00	Keynote lecture
	"Why screening to predict injury does not work - and probably never will... but why we are still screening our Olympic and Paralympic athletes?"	Roald Bahr
17:45	Annual meeting SFAIM

The Swedish Sports Medicine Congress

25-26 April 2019 in Gothenburg

"Welcome to the West Coast – the Frontline of Sports Medicine"

Thursday 25 April Room G2

Time
09:30	Swedish Fika
10:15	Frontline of nutrition	Chair: Stefan Pettersson
	Carbohydrates/sports drink during exercise and competition - when, how and why	Stefan Pettersson
	Protein intake and training adaptation - when, how and why	William Apro
	Micro and macro periodization for energy intake - the effects on performance and health	Anna Melin
11:15	Update symposia: Nutrition	Chair: Mats Börjesson
	The UEFA nutritional guidelines	James Collins
11:45	Lunch
12:45	Frontline of physiological match analysis	Chair: Magni Mohr
	Physical demands and fatigue profiles in football - an individual	Dan Franson
	Training for individual game demands in football	Prof Magni Mohr
	Intensified training in football	Prof Magni Mohr
13:45	Open Paper Presentation - Physiology
15:15	Swedish Fika
15:45	Frontline of physical activity	Chair: Ingibjörg Jonsdottir
	How to measure physical load	Daniel Arvidsson
	FYSS update	Ing-Marie Dohrn
	Update sudden cardiac death	Aaron Baggish

The Swedish Sports Medicine Congress

25-26 April 2019 in Gothenburg

"Welcome to the West Coast – the Frontline of Sports Medicine"

Friday 26 April Room G3

Time
08:15	Section meeting (sektionsmöten)
09:15	Update symposia
	Doping in sport	Sverker Nilsson
09:30	PRP in muscle injuries: lights and shadows	Alberto Grassi
09:45	Swedish Fika
10:30	Frontline of return to sport	Chair: Markus Waldén
	Introduction	Markus Waldén
	The RTS continuum – what's now and what's for the future?	Clare Ardern
	What's the role of MRI in predicting RTS following muscle injuries?	Arnlaug Wangensteen
	Why not routinely delay RTS in order to avoid re-injuries?	Martin Häggglund
	Discussion
11:30	Frontline of shoulder pain (Swedish)	Chair: Jón Karlsson
	Selection - the key to success in patients with subacromial pain	Hanna Björnsson Hellgren
	Selection - the key to success in patients with subacromial pain	Theresa Holmgren
12:15	Keynote lecture
	Medical emergencies at the Boston Marathon	Aaron Baggish
13:00	Lunch
14:00	Keynote lecture
	Extreme/Adventure Sports	Mike Carmont
14:30	Frontline of sports psychology	Chair: Urban Johnson
	Prevention of Sport Injuries: A psychological perspective	Andreas Ivarsson
	Post-injury, psychology and return to sport	Ulrika Tranaeus
	Psychological Support for Injured Elite Athletes: Experiences and Reflections from an Applied Perspective	Carolina Lundqvist
15:30	Swedish Fika
16:00	Keynote lecture
	Individualized treatment of the ruptured Achilles tendon	Kristoffer Barfod
16:30	Honorary lecture	Roland Thomeé
17:00	Awards and presentation of Presentation of the Swedish Exercise and Sport Congress 2020

The Swedish Sports Medicine Congress

25-26 April 2019 in Gothenburg

"Welcome to the West Coast – the Frontline of Sports Medicine"

Friday 26 April Room G2

Time
09:45	Swedish Fika
10:30	Frontline of Sports for Health	Chair: Mats Börjesson
	Football for health	Prof Magni Mohr
	Skiing for health	Stefan Lindinger
	Is sports always for health?	Mats Börjesson
11:30	Frontline of injury prevention and screening	Chair: Stefan Grau
	Development of overuse injuries in elite Swedish athletes- a multidisciplinary approach	Andreas Lundberg-Zachrisson
	Development of overuse injuries in recreational running- a multidisciplinary approach	Jonatan Jungmalm
13:00	Lunch
14:30	Frontline of female football	Chair: Matilda Lundblad
	World class prevention and RTS with the financial capacity of womens elite football	Karin Schröder
	Achievement psychology, next action on the pitch, how we make each other better players	Rasmus Thornberg
	Fitness achievement analysis	Pontus Ekblom
	Clinical jump performance measures in football players	Anne Fältström
15:30	Swedish Fika	